..POLITICS..

The politicians were rather surprised yesterday afternoon, when it was announced that Congressman William M. Baird, of the Island, had withdrawn from the race for the Republican mayoralty nomination. Mr. Baird, when seen last evening, said to an Intelligencer man that he had withdrawn from the race this year in order that his chances for success two years hence might be improved. He expresses the warmest thanks for the kindly support of his many good friends in all parts of the city and hopes that they will be with him in 1902.

The withdrawal of Mr. Baird leaves four aspirants in the field for the Republican mayoralty nomination, Congressman James P. Maxwell, of the Island, Congressman William G. Caldwell, of the First ward, ex-Mayor John R. Butts, and Mr. Charles H. Geiger, of the Island.

In a card appearing this morning, Mr. John Wallace announces that he has decided to withdraw from the race for the Republican city clerkship nomination. The field remains clear for City Clerk O'Brien.

Mr. Wallace Declines to Run. To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

Sir:—Believing the time too short to make a contest for the Republican nomination for city clerk, I have decided to decline the many generous offers of support in my behalf. Thanking my friends for the encouragement received, I am

Respectfully, JOHN WALLACE. Wheeling, Nov. 23.

BRIEF MENTIONINGS.

Events in and about the City Given in a Nutshell.

A neat sum, was realized on the benefit dance given for James Brooks, at the Pythian castle, last night.

The funeral of the infant child of James Zaya will take place from the family residence on Forty-eighth street, this morning at 9 o'clock. Interment will occur at Mt. Calvary.

At the club rooms of the Young Men's Improvement Association, on South Jacob street, to-night, an oyster supper will be given. The rooms have been tastefully decorated for the occasion.

The funeral of Andrew Gillespie, who died of a cerebral hemorrhage Thursday night, will take place from his late residence on South Market street, to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will follow at Mt. Zion.

Misses Mame Kennedy and Flo Sheridan entertained a number of their friends with a dance at Meyer's hall, on South Wood street, last evening. Prof. Long presided at the piano. Luncheon was served at a seasonable hour.

Charles Leach, of South Wood street, will undergo an operation Monday, for the removal of a piece of steel from his eye. The splinter lodged in his eye while at work at the Riverside last Monday, and has been very painful.

The cadets of the Cathedral high school will produce the drama, "False Accused," at the Carroll club auditorium Tuesday evening. Musical and literary numbers will intersperse the programme and the Opera House orchestra will render selections.

The Thanksgiving Game.

Word has been received from the East End management of Pittsburgh, by the Bethany management, that everything is moving along nicely and their team getting in fine shape for the big Thanksgiving contest with Bethany at the Island ball park. They will bring down a large crowd of rooters, and are coming confident of winning. The Bethany boys put it two hours at hard practice yesterday, and are getting in excellent shape with the exception of William Edwards, who is still unable, on account of his broken finger, received at Pittsburgh, to take any but light practice. It is barely possible that he may not play during the whole game, but Bethany has several good men who can play that position, if necessary.

Expose of Spiritualism.

Last night, before the Ohio County Medical Society, Mr. Harry Rogers, of the East End, gave a very interesting expose of spiritualism, as practiced by fake mediums with whom he had worked recently. He gave the materialization of voices, the trumpet performance, materialization of flowers, slate writing—in fact, all the little things that make up the average spiritualistic séance. The physicians present were of the opinion that the expose was complete. Among other things, Mr. Rogers made himself rigid, and was laid between chairs, after which Dr. Ackerman, who weighs 250 pounds, stood upon the young man's body.

PLAIN WORDS FROM MOUTH OF BISHOP POTTER

Delivers an Address to a New York Audience of 2,500 on "God and the City."

VIGILANCE COMMITTEE

Of 25,000 Reformers Suggested—Gotham Cannot Be Redeemed by Emotions or Idle Talk

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Bishop Henry C. Potter to-day delivered an address on "God and the City," before an audience of 2,500 persons in St. Paul's chapel, in which he suggested the organization of a vigilance committee of 25,000 reformers to cleanse the city of vice. He favored a central committee of three or five men under whose orders the huge committee should act. The bishop said in part:

"If in New York to-morrow there could be organized a vigilance committee, such as was in San Francisco of 25,000 men, sworn to service for three years and pledged by night and by day, when their business and their opportunities gave them freedom to do it, to see for themselves whether our souls had been smitten with the sorrow of that little victim of five years who was picked up in the street the other day in broad day light and ravished by some brute who had lived here, would such things be possible in a decent and God-fearing community?"

"No, men and brethren, not if you and I had our eyes open and kept them open and stood where God calls us to stand to-day. And then finally we must have not only vigilance, but persistence."

"We shall not redeem New York, men and brethren, by emotions. We shall not redeem it by denunciation; we shall not redeem it by pessimistic temper that wraps its garment around it and turns its back upon it. There are burning with zeal and energy and a high purpose of sacrifice in this great city today great multitudes of men and women; they are of different religions, they must forget that; they are of different nationalities, they must forget that; they are of different political associations, most of all they must forget that and if, having reached that point, we could find three or five men whom all of us trusted and believe in (there are hundreds of them) and say to these three or five men—now then, tell us what you want us to do, where you want me to stand, what relation you want our party, our church, or organization to bear to the betterment of New York, we will trust your judgment, we will follow your lead and the work is done and next to that in this service of enlightened soul, we want vigilance."

"Hearts of Oak."

James A. Herne's greatest successes in playwriting have been in dramas dealing with scenes of life on the coast of New England. Thus in "Shore Acres" the scenes are laid along the furthest shore of Maine. "Sag Harbor" deals with the people of the extreme end of Long Island, who find a never ending topic of conversation in the by-gone glories of the whaling days, while in "Hearts of Oak" Mr. Herne found the prototypes of his characters in the fishermen and sailors of the great Bay State. "Hearts of Oak" will be at the Opera House Thursday, Nov. 23, matinee and night.
